

The current five mega companies owning the media is already too few. Please retain the current, if not perfect, regulations allowing for community radio, public, private, and band-specific options for broadcast forms of mass media. We can't do much about print media, which is owned by a few companies with a lock on advertisers, so let's not go the way of print with broadcast. Thank you.